STRIKE BREAKERS IN A RIOT IN CITY

Late Thursday afternoon, a gang of Mexican strike breakers started a riot at the transfer station. The men had just come in on a smelter car of the men, it seemed, claimed that the car conductor had short changed him in the heated discussion, the men on the car said the Mexican struck the conductor. That was after the car stopped at the transfer station. The Mexican workers rallied around him, and their loud talking attracted a number of people. The patrolman on the place beat around the scene. He shoed the strike breakers and the crowd away. There were no arrests.

MISS MARGARET CANTWELL

The funeral of Miss Margaret Cantwell, 25 years of age, died at her home in Government Hill Friday morning. She came here eight months ago from Kansas and is survived by her mother and two brothers. Funeral services will be held at the Guardian Angel church in East El Paso, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

HERBERT BROWN

The funeral of Herbert Brown, the pioneer Arizona naturalist, which was held in Tucson Wednesday, was attended by Paul Heermann, of El Paso, who was a nephew of Mr. Brown. The deceased Arizona was well known in El Paso and throughout the southwest. He was manager of the Pendolphy hotel in Yuma, Ariz. until he was called to Tucson to do some special scientific work for the University of Arizona. For a number of years he was editor of the Arizona Star, published at Tucson, and at one time was superintendent of the Arizona prison, when it was located at Yuma.

LONG BEACH MILLIONAIRE FAILS TO REED SEPENA

Los Angeles, Cal., May 16.—George H. Bixby, the Long Beach millionaire, indicted on charges of having conspired with two girls, narrowly escaped today being the object of a second bench warrant in a township justice court to answer for contempt.

Bixby's failure to respond to a subpoena as a witness at the preliminary examination of Emma J. Goodman, alias Josie Rosenberg, proprietress of the Jougouli resort, on a pandering charge, caused the first warrant to be issued, and the millionaire finally surrendered himself.

Justice Reese continued the Rosenberg case until this morning, and when Bixby failed to respond, the justice said he would issue another bench warrant. Bixby's attorney declared that his client had misunderstood the time set for the hearing.

ENGAGEMENT OF PRINCE TO AMERICAN IS DENIED
